THESE HARD TIMES

Pringle Young, who is traveling for Dorsey Brothers, was in North Georgia, and he has a paper with an article which he has brought to us for publication. The article is from the Newspaper, published at Millen, Georgia, and follows:

We feel sure that some of the old folks in the neighborhood are envious. We picked it up from one of our exchanges who in turn picked it up from the Trade School News, published in Atlanta. The school is in Atlanta. It has a story about some of you are able to tell with some added to it, perhaps. It was written by George Moxon, who is the secretary-treasurer of the Teachers' Retirement System of Alabama, while he is here. These Hard Times is what he is here to do:

"Don't talk to me about hard times. I have had eight miles from a railroad, five miles from a school house, nine miles from a church, 885 miles from New York, and a wash hole, fifteen feet from a cornfield, and 8,767 miles from home."

"Our nearest neighbors lived two miles away, the nearest school or town, I never saw a suit of underwear until I was 17 years old, and my revelation didn't bring me to anyone in the family."

"There were twelve members in our family, but we never had enough to eat in, including a dining room which was also the kitchen. We thought everyone in the world had gravy and bread for breakfast, liver and cracklin' for dinner, and ham and corn pone for supper. That's what we had, and liked it."

"Some of us wore blue gingham stockings, and some of us wore white gingham stockings. We had nice white suits for summer use. We slept on straw ticks and pillows were not thought of as regular. I never had more money, would rather than I would have, nearly grown. Father got hold of two half dollars at the same time, and let us have these. Taxes were higher, but harder to pay than now."

"We owned two kerosene lamps, neither of which had a chimney. Our house had a hole in the roof, and two of our rooms had holes in them. We had a glass window in our 'company' room. Our nice pieces of furniture were a horse and a rocking chair. Our clothes were of the slat and tight-rope variety. The 'trundle bed' took care of all the young ones under 5 years of age, and it stayed full all of the time."

"We went to school two or three months, but not in the winter. We attended school one month, but not in a car; we used a two-mile team. We dressed up on Sunday, but never wrote letters nor received any. We were the only family, distantly, in our town."

"We drank kerosene and never had a yearning for coffee."

"We sopped our own molasses; ate our own meat; we considered rice a delicacy for the past few years. We had no meat, but had cheese, never saw any; we knew of some store-bought clothes, but never had any. We got a few candies and the raisins for Christmas and were happy; we loved Pa and Ma and were never hungry, enjoyed getting up, and did not expect to expect nothing. And that's why our so-called hard times isn't so hard on me."

INCREASES INCOME
PROGRAMME FOLLOWING

HARTSELLE, Ala.—H. D. Humphrey, unit test demonstration farmer of Hartselle, Route 3, has increased his income from $237 in 1936 to an average of $976 for the period of 1936 to 1939.

This increase in farm income has been due to Mr. Humphrey's following all neatly as possible Morgan County's fine farm land in connection with the Morgan County Soil Conservation Association and the Extension Service.

The per cent of openland protected by cover during the winter has increased from 6 per cent in 1935 to 52 per cent in 1939. Winter cover acreage on openland increased from five per cent in 1935 to 34 per cent in 1939.

MILFORD WILLIS KILLED IN FLORIDA ACCIDENT

Friends and relatives in Coffeyville and relatives in Florida were deeply grieved to learn of the death of Milford Willis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Willis, former residents of the county, whose death resulted from an automobile accident Saturday, October 19th, near Gainesville, Fla. Milford Willis and son, James of Kinston attended the funeral held in Gainesville, Fla., Monday afternoon, October 21, following the account of young Willis' death from the McIntosh, Fla., paper.

Many people of McIntosh and vicinity were greatly shocked and deeply grieved last Saturday afternoon upon learning that Milford Willis, a young man, had been instantly killed in the afternoon on the Gainesville highway. He had been employed by the Ell Witt Cigar & Candy Co., with whom he had been connected, apparently, for some time. He had hit-and-run driver and turned over in ditch. He was 23 years old, and was considered by all to be a young man.

Funeral services were held Saturday evening at the First Methodist church. Monday afternoon, conducted by the pastor, Rev. H. W. Blackburn, assisted by Rev. H. D. Dennis of McIntosh, and Rev. W. D. Dennis of Gainesville, and was attended by a large number of grief-stricken relatives and friends, and coming from Alabama and Georgia. The services were used in effective arrangement. The dining room was covered with a heavy cloth and held as its centerpiece a silver basket of salvia and baby breath.

A most delicious dinner was served at eight o'clock by Mrs. Seibert, Mrs. J. M. Garrett, Mrs. Frank Gaston, of Mobile, and Mrs. E. C. Bryan. After dinner plans for the new year were discussed by the pastor and the family.

Guest list included: Mrs. J. M. Garrett, Mrs. L. P. Morris, Mrs. E. C. Bryan, Mrs. J. M. Morris, Mrs. D. P. Dennis, Mrs. W. D. Dennis, Mrs. M. R. Hildreth, Mrs. A. C. French, Harold Deal, A. C. French and R. C. Bryan.

Vote "NO" On Amendment No. 4

Amendment No. 4 affects Morgan County and Morgan County alone. In my opinion the people of Morgan County do not want this amendment passed and on November 5 will vote overwhelmingly against it. We call on our friends in the other counties of the State to vote NO on Amendment No. 4.
